Accredited with the Commission on Teacher Credentialing, the North Coast School of Education (NCSOE) provides:

- A Mentor, a trained experienced teacher, who supports the professional growth of their new teacher through weekly meetings and coaching sessions
- Professional learning opportunities that provide tools and skills that enhance and deepen the participant’s understanding with “take aways” that can be immediately applied to the the classroom and mentoring setting
- Program materials and resources that guide best practices for teacher success
- A credential recommendation for Intern, Preliminary, or Clear credentials upon successful program and credential requirement completion
- District Coordinator funding for management of online NCSOE Roster and new teacher support

NCSOE’s Mentoring-Based System

Mentors play a critical role in guiding beginning teachers through the process of deepening their teaching practice. To support each Mentor’s professional growth, NCSOE offers standards-based training throughout the year that is grounded in theoretical research. Using a Mentoring-Based System, NCSOE guides Mentors through the process of developing and refining their mentoring and coaching skills.
