

Support for Teachers who hold a TEACHING PERMIT FOR STATUTORY LEAVE (TPSL)

North Coast School of Education's (NCSOE) TPSL program assists districts that employ long-term substitutes to fill positions due to a statutory leave in meeting CTC's professional development requirements.

OPTION #1 Complete TPSL Program

- ✓ The TPSL holder completes NCSOE's Foundational Course
- ✓ NCSOE provides Mentor support and specialized Mentor training
- ✓ NCSOE funds back to the district the Mentor stipend.

Program Fee: $3500
(includes $1250 Mentor stipend)

OPTION #2 TPSL Foundational Course Only

- ✓ The TPSL holder completes NCSOE's Foundational Course
- ✓ The district provides the Mentor with support and training.

Program Fee: $300

TPSL Foundational Course

This online self-paced course includes:

- Introduction to Early Orientation & Local Context Application
- Classroom Management & the Learning Environment
- Best Practices in Instruction & Individualized Education Programs
- Human Development
- Curriculum and Instruction
- Reading and Language Arts
- Teaching English Learners
- Pedagogy
- Ethics and Professionalism*
- Health, Safety and Hygiene*

Employing districts or agencies may have/require their own versions of these trainings; if so, it is encouraged that TPSL holders complete these site-based trainings. If not, the modules are provided at no additional cost.*

To learn more, visit www.ncsoe.org.

Sonoma County Office of Education • North Coast School of Education

5340 Skylane Blvd, Santa Rosa, CA 95403

(707) 524 2818 • ncsoe@scoe.org